Build for Character
not for Fame
(CLASS MOTTO)

Prologue

This is the yearbook of a class which is part of a war-generation. The class of '43 entered Gloucester High School from a world at peace, and is graduated into a world of war, yet its school days were nearly as normal and light-hearted as those of any other time. This yearbook, therefore, portrays the shared dreams and common victories typical of any high school seniors. It is a record of the joyous times the class of '43 spent together. If, in the future, some members of the class enjoy pleasant relaxation while reliving the events here chronicled, the 1943 Flicker will have proved itself a happy venture.

Dedication

TO THOSE MEMBERS OF THE
GLOUCESTER HIGH SCHOOL FAC-ULTY WHO ARE SERVING OUR COUNTRY IN THE ARMED FORCES
DURING THE PRESENT WAR, WE,
THE CLASS OF 1943, DEDICATE THIS
FLICKER WITH HONOR, ADMIRA-

Gleanings from the Class Ballot

Voters! here's the verdict; now's the time to see
Who's the "Mostest" and the "Bestest" in the Class of '43.
We've kept it quiet for so long without a single peep.
We're glad we're now allowed to tell . . . so read it and weep!

The $64 prize goes to "Bob Hope" Birdseye who has been declared by you, the Jury, to be our Class Genius with 73 votes to his credit. (Don't forget to buy a bond with your prize, Henry.) Jan comes in next with 10 votes, and a consolation prize of $.05 goes to Jimmy Nugent who polled one vote. (His own???)

Jean (how-to-win-friends-and-influence-people) Firth is our most popular girl, with Dotty P. and newcomer, Shirley Wright, coming in second and third. The Boys attest to "Hedy" Duncan's popularity by voting her fourth.

Our "shy, but oh! my!" Class president tops the list for Most Popular Boy with Colonel Chisholm marching in second. Grogan and Karcher tie for third place, with honorable mention going to Clancey and Bradley.

Lois Lowe's work with paint and brush wins her honors as Most Artistic Girl hands down, with M. Cavanaugh, her nearest competitor, taking second place with two votes. Disputing for third place with one vote each are H. Haines, Pollyanna, and J. Rowley. You've been holding out on us, Jan. Can you draw, too????

Ernest Williams, a newcomer from Essex, painting diligently, is defeated by Dana, who, with a smile and a swish of his brush, slides in to take first place as Most Artistic Boy.

Boys declare there's no such thing as a practical girl, but Bunny doesn't care, and is voted our Most Practical Girl with Aggie Walsh and M. Livingston on her heels.

Dear Melvin is our Most Practical Boy, with Bob Marden only two votes behind. Is somebody kidding???

Boys, you'll be interested to know that we have a very long list of romantic girls in our class. De Lotto, Nat, Janice Egan, Bunny, and Barb Jensen try their darndest, but the crown goes to Dotty . . . I don't want to walk with you . . . Perkins. Her closest competitor is Marion . . . I don't want to walk without you . . . Wolfe.

As if you don't know, Bob . . . the bells are ringing for me and my gal . . . Clancey heads the list as Most Romantic Boy. One girl put "WOW!!!" after his name. Exclamation marks included. We wonder who it was . . . Grogan comes in next sharing the spotlight with Alan A. and Alonzo. Poirier polled one vote, but voting for oneself doesn't count, Dick.

Our most popular girl is also our Most Agreeable girl challenged by P. Andrews, who comes in a very close second. Other "agreeables" include M. Grimes, L. Lowe, Dot Day and Louise Bennett.

Boys, it seems, are agreeable this year. Fred Bradley heads the very long list and Alan A. and Burgarella smile agreeably at each other for second place. And we must not forget to mention R. Hendrickson, Johnny Fattig, Corliss, and Poirier.

Aggie Walsh sets about in a determined manner to win the title of Most Argumentative Girl. Anna Thanos argues with her that she should have won, and Madeline Shields declares that they are both wrong. Well, what can you expect?

Strange, but Poirier, our Most Argumentative Boy, polled two votes as Most Agreeable. Have we a Jekyll-Hyde character in our class? Other argumentatives include Buzzy, O'Connell, and Rubin.

Maryline our "B.B." (brunette beauty) wins Most Attractive without doubt, Nat, Gibbs and Day are her only competitors. Gentlemen, it seems, prefer brunettes this year.

Alan, our handsome (sigh!) baton twirler takes a bow as Most Attractive Boy. With only 10 and 7 votes respectively, Marden and Bradley come in next. Clancey received one vote.

Jan. F., Babe W., and Dot Day are the efficient females of our class. Holding their own for the males are Birdseye, Poirier and Dick Carroll.

There certainly wasn't much competition for the title of Most Bashful Girl. Suzanne comes out on top, her nearest competitors being "Are you Kidding" and Leslie Lane.

Yes, Girls—we have a bashful boy. Only one. Blushing brightly, Everett peeps out from his specs to receive the almost extinct title of Most Bashful Boy.

Kay Carter, our Veronica Lake from Essex, and Karcher are the class dare-devils. The nearest competitor, only a few votes behind was "All boys and Noyes"

We've an exceedingly talented class, and with opera star Louise Ellis, actress DeLotto, artist Lowe, journalist Perkins, editor Rowley, scientist Birdseye, poetess Perry, and just Poirier trying their darndest, the competition was pretty tough. Birdseye, however, bows to Poirier as Most Talented Boy and Jan comes out as Most Talented Girl with Perkins and Lowe second and third, respectively.

Mary Grimes is our Most Forgetful child (naughty-naughty). Thelma Lane and Nat Francis complete the list of "dopes."

Here comes Poirier again—now, as Most Forgetful Boy. What a Man! Frank Lima, Jack Laurie and Pete Lovett are next in line.

Our Most Naive child is Gloria Benedetto—hands down! Along with this title goes a copy of "What Every Young Girl Should Know".

That "fast" Greel lad blushes again and receives the title of Most Naive Boy. Maurice McLean grins widely and comes in second, (things have changed since this was voted, son) and trailing in behind, comes Eddie McLaughlin, Stanley Hodgkins, and John Crowell.

Joan Hall accepts her title of Most Sophisticated Girl in a blase manner and proceeds to chat with S. Wright who is next in line.

Oh—Henry takes off with Most Sophisticated Boy with Bill Chisholm only two votes behind.

Jan and Henry come out on top as Most Literary. We expect at least one book prize from each of you. Poirier comes in second for the men, while Dot Perkins, Lois Lowe and Jean Perry claim second, third and fourth place for the women.

Leading the tongue wagers of G.H.S. are Helen DeLotto and Karcher. Kay Noyes, P. Andrews and Jean Oakes loudly dispute for the title. Buzzy, minus one vote to tie, looks for the nearest ear and gives out.

Cheers for Shirley Wright our Most Witty Girl with no competition except those girls who voted for themselves: Barb Morgan, Les Lane, Winnie Kiff, Jean Stropole, and Thelma Lane.

You will just never guess who claims the title of the Most Witty Senior Boy—Henry Birdseye! Can you imagine?? Karcher received 15 votes and Dick comes in again with one vote.

Louise (Jeanette McDonald) Ellis steps into first place as Most Musical Girl. In the chorus are Vickie, Phyllis, and Joan.

Melvin (Beethoven) Rubin takes first place with no close competition. Monbourquette deserves mention.

Bashful Sue is also our Most Quiet Girl, and, we hate to tell you, but naive, bashful Greel is also Most Quiet. It's a wonder anyone knew he was around to vote for him.

Polly Amero leads the fair sex as Most Lazy with V. Clark and L. Sousa next in line. The Lazy members of our class are many—(shame), but Rocky Mountain leads the list of males with our President—(tsh!), his twin, Charlie, Robert O'Hanly, and Jimmy Nugent receiving the other votes.

Joan gets Best Groomed by a large majority of the votes. Her nearest competitor with 3 votes is V. Clark. Next comes the sisters Favalora with J. Veator, L. Lowe, Vicki and Jan trailing behind with one vote each.

Our handsome Colonel is Best Groomed boy with Stew Cooney completing the list of Beau Brummels.

Mayem and Buzzy are the Eleanor Powell and Arthur Murray of '43 with Nat and Chisholm not too far behind.

Grogan wins by a narrow margin from Karcher as Best Athlete with C. Dickman coming a close 3rd. Representing the weaker sex are Fannie, first, Wolfe, second, and Silva and Stodky tie for third place.

"Katherine Cornell" DeLotto wins "Best Actress" with Vicki challenging her for a close second. Noyes and Perkins tie for 3rd. "Maurice Evans" McKenna wins the Oscar for the boys with Mountain and J. Nugent receiving honorable mention.

With a lolly pop as bait, Janice Egan comes in first as Lady Cradle Snatcher with Baby DeLotto following.

Bill Calledare, our Lieutenant Colonel, wins as Cradle Snatcher challenged by Colonel Chisholm. Hmm!!

Dick noses out Birdseye with 7 more votes for the Senior boy who has done most for the class. Thompson asks what either of them did. In the feminine lead for deeds etcetera is Jan with Perkins coming in a close second.

Outstanding in leadership is our versatile vice-president Jean Firth who gets all but 5 votes which go to Jan "Flash" Rowley.

Bill Chisholm is Most Outstanding with J. Dickman, Birdseye, and Poirier close on his heels.

Could ours be a scientific class? Miss Crawley takes the lead as Most Popular teacher. Miss Gale is a close second, with Mr. Corrigan, Mr. Lane and Mr. Parkhurst trailing behind.

Without question there are many "gifts" in our class but Melvin turns out to be the prize package—(sigh!). Fred Bradley doesn't do so bad either.

Jan and Henry are our Most Likely to Succeed's—hands down. Don't disappoint us now.

We present Jimmy Broderick with a brand new teething ring and a teddy bear. Baby Broderick's nearest competitors were D. Perkins, to whom goes a baby doll, and DeLotto, who gets a safety pin.

"SADIE HAWKINS DAY" REIGNS SUPREME

Every dog has his day and we had ours in April, 1942 at the Junior Tea Dance, general chairmanned by D. Perkins, and Senior Tea Dance in October, 1942 headed by Betty Boughton, when the girls of the class of '43 took leap year literally and coralled their own men for the two teas. Attendance at each was well over 50 couples showing that shrinking violets are out for the duration.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL OPENS DOORS

September 1941 saw the student body and faculty of G.H.S. moving bag and baggage from Dale Ave. to Blynman Ave. One of the outstanding features of the New High School, we soon discovered, was the introduction of a complete and excellently equipped vocational school. With Mr. Scott as director, various shops were opened to boys who were qualified for admission to these classes. Electrical, automotive, sheet-metal, carpentry, and print shops were open to boys interested in these various types of work. We fully appreciate these shops but often secretly wished that we'd never heard of them. The Vocational shops were responsible for the academic school's continuing in session until 2:35 P.M. everyday.

CLASS OF '43 TAKES LEAD IN MILITARY AFFAIRS

In R.O.T.C. affairs we early became a brilliant class. As sophomores B. Clancey won the Major George H. Morse medal for rifle marksmanship and H. Birdseye was awarded a medal for excellence as a sophomore driller. Our junior year saw us even better prepared to compete with the upper-class officers. John Fattig was awarded the Hearst Trophy for marksmanship and John O'Connell was presented with the Colonel Shum medal, awarded to the most outstanding corporal. Clancey further distinguished himself by placing second in the Haskell drill on Field Day. C. Amero became the military hero of the year by winning the Individual drill and the Haskell drill. G. Danikas of the Band placed third in the Individual drill and the Band our junior year walked off with the Prize Squad medals. Four of our officers were members of this Prize Squad their junior year: D. Carroll, B. Coull, G. Danikas, and A. Alexander.

ATHLETICS IN SKIRTS

After the class of '43 leaves G.H.S., it will be remembered for its outstanding girl as well as boy athletes.

The senior girls who participated in softball hold the title of being the only undefeated and untied softball team in the school. Jean Stropke, softball enthusiast, possesses a terrific batting average which her competitors well know.

Evelyn Silva could be seen during her gym period performing many difficult acrobatic stunts, which included elbow stand and back flip, one-hand cart-wheel.

"Kid Mercury" is a title which fits Priscilla Landry to a "t." She can run around bases like a professional miler, and would make some boys appear ridiculous if they were competitors.

JOHN DICKMAN ELECTED

CLASS PRESIDENT

Early in the spring of our junior year we nominated and elected our class officers. By an overwhelming majority John Dickman was elected class President. The fair sex not to be outdone by the boys who elected an extremely popular boy as president, elected Jean Firth as Vice-president. The other officers who held their positions capably were "Bud" MacKay class treasurer (no one seems to know just what he treasured) and Dot Day as class secretary.

"Dead-Eye" is a nickname bestowed upon Marie Arvilla because of her excellence on the rifle team. Practicing every afternoon in the rifle range she has shot many a bull's eye.

Our senior girls can well be counted upon to obtain high bowling scores. Marion Wolfe, Betty Boughton, Polly St. Pierre, and Ruthe Perry are the feminine "Ned Days" of bowling.

Last but not least we mention the Victory Corps Drill Team. The girls wish to express their deepest appreciation to Miss Savage and to Sergeant Tucker for the time and effort they gave in making this team a tremendous success.

So began our year as the ruling body of G.H.S. In 1939 we had entered G.H.S. as a group of bewildered, belittled freshman but in the years following, we had become learned and we are now—bewildered seniors. O, cruel fate. In the year 1943 we inaugurated the birth of our class paper, the FISHERMAN'S REEL, in which we recorded all the things we thought worth remembering of our past four years.

FROSH FROLIC AT FIRESIDE

The Freshman History Club, inaugurated 1940, dissolved 1940, reveled in a day of merriment as they celebrated, early in May, the end of an outstanding year. The younger set swarmed to Wingersheek beach following their leaders Poirier, Perkins, Stockbridge, and John Dickman. There, the club sponsor Arthur Smith and the other chaperones joined in the frolicing, participating in various games and indulging in many water sports despite the frigid weather. We displayed our proficiency in building a fire with this result: singed hot dogs, charcoal marshmallows and stewed clams. A good time was had by all.

CLASSIFIED ADS

Wanted: Competent fumigator to exterminate the third floor and in particular room 39. (Old Building) If work proves satisfactory, job may be permanent. Apply in person to Mr. William Greeley.

Wanted: Someone to counteract the half-witted jokes of Henry S. Birdseye, Esquire. If fumigator working in room 39 is successful please report to room 8. Ask for Miss Harris.

Wanted: Reliable pawn broker to appraise value of medals, buttons, and sabres. Apply back door of the high school—after dark. Ask for Bill Chisholm. Bring truck and be prepared to pay cash.

Wanted: 1200 pairs of roller skates immediately. Send to Mr. Johnson, high school office. Skates must be in good condition. To be used by students going to and from classes.

Wanted: Lawn mowers to care for grass on school campus. See Mr. Colby.

MAKE MARK IN

MUSICAL MATTERS

The year of 1941 saw us as innocent ingenuos travel to Plymouth and Maine for the last of the regular music festivals for the duration. The Poland Springs House at Auburn played host to us and for the first time in our young lives we felt important. That year we sophs were brought into the limelight by the appearance of Vicki Golart and Donny Goodwin as members of the cast of the "Mocking Bird."

We shall pass very quietly over the year 1942 for it saw none of us featured in that year's Glee Club production.

1943 was the year for us seniors to star in the operetta. P. Cooley, J. Hall, and J. Perry were the feminine leads in "Ermine" which was a complete success in spite of them. Le Roy Moore, Bob Marden, Bob Clancey, and John O'Connell lent their talents as members of the masculine cast.

CLASS HISTORY COMMITTEE

Dorothy N. Perkins, Mary I. Grimes, Jean Perry, Alicia Karvellas.

DANCE CLUB INAUGURATED

A festive event of '41 was the huge gymnasium exhibition under the direction of Mr. D. Bernard Pratt and Miss Anna P. Savage. Snappy precision drills, led by F. Vrachos, H. Stockbridge, L. Moulton, and M. Morris, were executed as if by professionals. Compliments were many and favorable about the colorful folk dances which displayed previously hidden talents of L. Bennett, B. Gibbs, M. Torrey, A. Karvellas, and J. Hall. It was in this our sophomore year that the Dance Club was formed and disbanded. The students participating in these folk dances were charter members of a one year club.

THE NEWS NOOK

1942—Essex students introduced to new braintrust quarters. Student guides formally acquainted them with principal, teachers, pupils, blocks, cafeteria, recess movies, and R.O.T.C. drill, all in one day.

1943—Auditorium plays host to "Vox Pop" on world-wide hook-up. Gloucester's contributions to the war effort are made known to all.

1942—Girls become first aid conscious as Miss Savage teaches definitions, tourniquets, bandages, and adds laceration and asphyxiation to several vocabularies. Note: When head is bleeding, apply tourniquet around neck.

1943—Camera Club generously offers to develop all films free of charge. Was it worth it?

1942—Several John Barrymores and Katharine Cornells are made famous in Dramatic Personae production "The Patchwork Quilt" and "The Marriage Proposal".

CAMPUS CAPERS

REMEMBER?

When we attended assemblies in the city hall provided there was room for us, which was seldom.

When we discovered that toasted cheese sandwiches were only a nickel. Whatever happened to them anyway?

When sitting on the wall on Dale Avenue at recess time was considered quite chic. You had to reserve your seats a month in advance.

When we first attended basketball games in the city hall and sat on bleachers on the stage.

When we entered the new school and were as bewildered as freshmen.

When we found out that toasted cheese sandwiches were extinct but that hot dogs were in vogue on Thursdays.

When the R.O.T.C. first drilled in the new gym.

When we first experienced air raid drills. This was a red letter day for we girls wore slacks for the first and last time.

When we attended movies at recess time or sometimes danced in the gym,—at least the brave ones did.

When Sarge Tucker painted his car—green.

When we walked to the high school parties.

When we as sophomores slaved from 8:05 to 2:35 every day.

INTELLIGENTSIA FLOCK TO HEAR REVIEWERS

Hopeful Ferbers and Runyons waxed eloquent in the school library emoting and demoting some well-known works of literature in the spring of our senior year. Due to the overwhelming success of this literary venture, a command performance was given. Proceeds were used to buy best-sellers for the school library. We, the class of '43, add this deed to our list of achievements.

SENIOR GIRLS AND MOTHERS FETED

AT BANQUET

The cafeteria opened its windows in surprise at the huge attendance of senior girls and their mothers at the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet. At this, the best attended banquet ever held, and probably the last one for the duration (due to the vociferous appetites of the senior girls), mothers were introduced to their sophisticated daughters as the faculty knew them. Mainly responsible for this gala event were Priscilla Hunt, general chairman; "Jan" Rowley, toastmistress; and Jean Firth, Girls' Club president. Budding committee women who also ran were Andrews, Bennett, Day, Grimes, Hall, Perkins, Torrey, and Wright.

P. S. Phyl Cooley and Louise Ellis contributed musical solos, with an appropriate background of 12 Glee Club-ites.

Speaking of Sports

Speaking of sports, don't you think that Karcher, Grogan, Landry, and the McKinnons will be capturing Newspaper headlines as second Mike Holovaks soon? These husky Ross-men were the mainstay of the '42-'43 football team and many's the time we have pointed with pride at them. In our junior year we had our potential basketball demons. Alexander, Chisholm, Coull, Carroll, J. Dickman, and Goodwin gave promise of becoming prize winning material. Then there were our local Joe DiMaggio's. It befell the duty of Co-captains C. Dickman and Mountain to maintain and uphold the honor of good G.H.S., which they did and very capably too. And, least we forget, a word of praise for our track team. While touchdowns were being made and home-runs being scored, future Glenn Cunningham's were dreaming of the day when they too would break records. Our contribution to the G.H.S. track team was not lacking and we offer Bradley, Alexander, Chisholm, Marden, and Hoysradt as a proof of this.

NEWS TRAVELS FAST

Old news was good news, when in 1942 patriotic students helped smash the axis by giving generously to our paper drive. For several exciting weeks, floor supervisors Parkhurst, Thompson, and Parsons were sworn enemies, for their respective floors vied for top honors in highest tonnage of newspapers. Inspirations for victory mottoes were "We May Be On the Bottom Floor. But We'll Come Out On Top", "Stand Up With Stan", and "Win With Win". Naturally, second floor won for this was our junior year and we as juniors leased the second floor as our hangout.

Activities

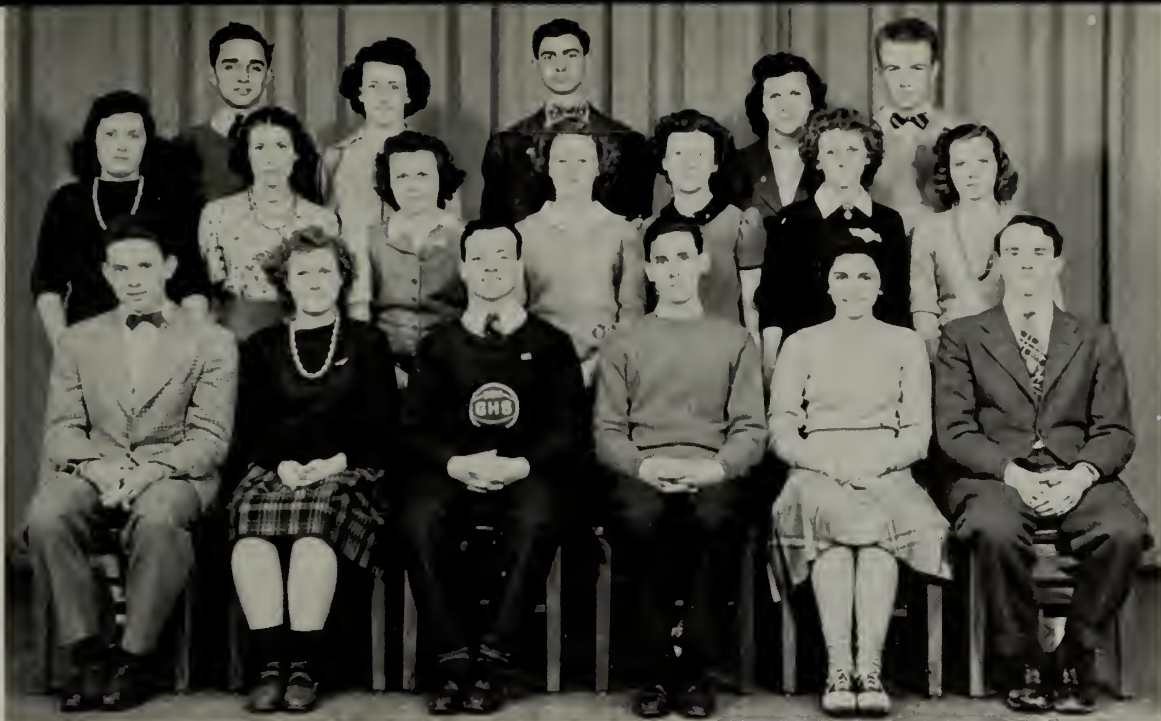

In the future when G.H.S. Alumni reminisce together of their high school days, not "book-learning", not pedagogues, but the extra-curricular activities in which each had a part will come first in their memories. The French club movie, the spring operetta, Field Day, the Officers' parties; these will be the favorite topics of conversation.

A school without extra-curricular "doings" is not a school; it is a mausoleum. An education is not complete without membership in various organizations which teach leadership, fellowship, good sportsmanship, honesty; essential qualities which compose character.

The following group photographs of the officers and senior members of our clubs and informal snapshots of the manifold activities they conduct vividly proclaim the worth of the extra-curricular program.

Class Calendar

SEPTEMBER

- 8—Children's Hour. Yearlings enter the sacred portals of higher education.
- 9—The hour is over—upper classmen arrive. Freshmen hearts start pounding.
- 10—The "freshies" are beginning to get self-confident, having seen how the seniors have developed.
- 11—Grogan present! Two freshmen injured in rush.
- 14—Mysterious noises heard from boiler room. Upon investigation, Calledare is found looking for room 308.
- 15—No Drill! Chisholm holding out for uniform like Statler-Hotel doorman.
- 16—Jedrey breaks first milk bottle. (He has held the record for 4 years.)
- 17—Drill! (What a sorry mess of men!)
- 18—Mr. Lane serenades his guinea pigs.
- 21—Back to the old grind. Teachers dole out homework in earnest. (We wonder when we have time out to eat and sleep?)
- 22—Corn will not be rationed as long as G.H.S. has a Birdseye. "Hank" told the one about the two Irishmen for the ninth time.
- 23—Officers get sabres. En garde! (Five officers on danger list at hospital.)
- 24—Mr. Coleman does first experiment. (Left wing of school missing.)
- 25—Freshmen introduced to recess special—"Hot dog and roll—five cents."
- 28—Col. McBride orders regiment to shave—"en masse."
- 29—Regiment gets extra drill. Everyone has that "five o'clock shadow", except the officers.
- 30—Danger sign. Alexander appears at drill wearing crimson necktie.

OCTOBER

- 1—Forgotten people—sophomores and juniors. (Jedrey breaks another milk bottle!)
- 2—Amoro does homework. Miss Brotherton has a shock.
- 5—Clancey and Goodwin smoke first cigars.
- 6—Absentees! Clancey and Goodwin.
- 7—School in tears. Mr. Johnson announces rest of day off due to coffee rationing.
- 8—Jeffrey has a big lead on absentee list.
- 9—Freshmen try to get nickel back on milk bottles during recess.
- 12—We thank our lucky stars for a guy like Columbus. McKenna wants to know if Lanesville has been discovered yet.
- 13—The worm turns! Extra drill for the officers. (Don't be alarmed, they're practising for the coming party.)
- 14—Miss Harris to M. Rubin: "Give me a strange incident."
- 15—Shakespeare said "All the world's a stage"—but Pete Oliver, on his way to floor supervisor, decides that Shakespeare didn't understand about teachers and classrooms when he wrote it.
- 16—Bradley ties score with Jedrey by breaking 2 milk bottles at recess.
- 19—Mr. Wiggins: "If you don't understand geometry by now, you might as well go home." Exit entire class.
- 20—Miss Harris able to hear herself talk. "Flash"—DeLotto home sick with laryngitis.
- 21—Dot's picture in "Flash". Clancey buys out entire "Times" circulation for today.
- 22—Grillo states he owes his success to Wheaties.
- 23—Freshmen cry for Grape-nut Flakes. Refuse to eat the golden brown flakes of Wheaties.
- 26—Announcement: "Buy War Bonds". "Butt" McKay pawns his class ring.
- 27—Grimes loses Mr. Rosen's "Les Precieuses Ridicules". Grimes applies for membership and immediate service in the WAACS.
- 28—Office Report "Lost, one cute freshman." Karcher and Nugent go to library to get book—"World's Greatest Detectives."
- 29—Miss Moore gives new glee clubites same pep talk she gave us 4 years ago.
- 30—Friday!!! Then two days of rest; two nights of play.

NOVEMBER

- 2—Cooney preoccupied. Comes to school by mistake.
- 3—Jeffrey pledges allegiance to Lanesville.
- 4—Park: "Don't talk so loud, Marden. You'll wake up Nugent."
- 5—Special menu. bread sandwiches.
- 6—30 days hath September; April, June, and Bunny Gibbs for speeding.
- 9—The "Ancient Mariner" is lost again. Searching Parties sent out.
- 10—Malone elected captain of football team for '44. Grogan indignant; thinks he should get it as he expects to return next year.
- 11—Armistice Day! Wonson seen stalking up Main Street hunting for a parade.
- 12—First payment made on Joan's Christmas present by Bradley.
- 13—Mr. Johnson walks to school. NO GAS!
- 16—Some say matches are made in Sweden. Jean Firth says you ought to see the matches made in G.H.S.
- 17—Nothing ever happens on Tuesday.
- 18—Brilliant senior defines islet as a baby's eye.

- 19—Senior tea! Galaxy of officers, athletes and gorgeous senior girls dance to the strains of Tony (Pastor) Gentile.
- 23—M. Wolfe attempts to argue with Mr. Wilder. 1.40 afternoon session is reward.
- 24—Chisholm loses regiment. Col. McBride presents him with compass and telescope.
- 25—Short session today. Reason: Thanksgiving! (Burgarella hasn't eaten for 2 days so he'll get his share!)
- 26—We
- 27—Eat
- 28—Too
- 29—Much!
- 30—Blue Monday! Only 25 days until Christmas.

DECEMBER

- 1—Torrid discussion in Latin IV class. H. Stockbridge thinks Aeneas was a cad for calling women the tickle sex. Mr. Parsons thinks he (Aeneas) was right in the groove.
- 2—Cataldo writes Santa for all A's, Lana Turner, and a "T" ration book.
- 3—Cataldo desolate. Kip Corliss told him there wasn't any Santa Claus.
- 4—Heard on office report: "Lost—A Certain Rich Man—return to Vicki Golart."
- 7—War Bond and Stamp sales reach highest peak.—We all remember PEARL HARBOR!!!!
- 8—Class ballots strewn through senior homerooms. Johnny Dickman passes out free lunch tickets campaigning for most popular. E. Greel finds out he is both most quiet and bashful. (Be careful of the quiet ones.)
- 9—R. Mountain calls up M. Morris and H. Stockbridge.
- 10—Mountain calls up Nat Francis and K. Carter.
- 11—Mountain says variety is the spice of life. Is there no end to his versatility?
- 14—O'Connell heads history class in singing of Christmas carols. Mr. Parsons joins in on "Silent Night".
- 15—Only 10 days until Christmas. We begin to feel Christmas.
- 16—Decided delinquency in classrooms. Senior girls heed the call of Woolworth's.
- 17—Lunch counter serves beans. P. Landry says it serves us right for buying them.
- 18—Clubs' Christmas party—girls' cabinet decorate tree. Casualties: 7 ornaments and Jean Firth.
- 20—27—Merry Christmas!!
- 28—We return a year older and wiser. Miss Gale smilingly reminds us of book reports. Obie O'Brien passes in report on "Grimm's Fairy Tales".

JANUARY

- 4—Seniors are crestfallen. It always rains on the Monday after vacation.
- 5—Meatless Tuesday—Seniors pull in their belts, and buy war stamps.
- 6—Sailor and soldier alumni speak to Miss Gale's English classes—Amoro uninterested, wants to know what's the matter with the Marines?
- 7—Dana Wilson sports Hawaiian necktie. We blame his artistic sense.
- 8—We should have blamed his girl friend.
- 11—Senior Class meeting—Marden models cap and gown.
- 12—Marden swamped with offers by MGM and RKO to replace Clark Gable.
- 13—National Honor Society has monthly meeting. Burgarella reports to Flash reporter: We ——— decided ——— to ——— on ——— next ———. (censored by Miss Gale.)
- 14—Miss Harris states: "Men are the sentimental sex." (Poirier blushes!)
- 15—Pressed violets found in Poirier's chemistry notebook. (For experiment—he says!)
- 18—"Babe" Wickey elected senior Victory Corps leader. (Camille offers his wholehearted support and "A" ration book to the Corps.)
- 19—Freshmen girls present Calledare with fleece-lined sweater. ("Wolf in sheep's clothing".)
- 20—Pingpong champions challenge Ralph Mountain and Barbey Morgan to game at assembly.
- 21—(Barbey erstwhile champion. Even champions bow to red hair.)
- 22—Book Reviewers shine at Book Talk. (Hank tells one about the two Scotchmen.)
- 25—Miss McGrew orders two copies of: "Best Jokes I've Heard," one for library and a copy for Major Birdseye.
- 26—Alexander president of Roosevelt club. Mayem exhausts library's supply of books on "History and Its Great Men".
- 27—Recess dancing. The worm turns; boys ask girls to dance, instead of vice-versa. Four and a half couples on floor.
- 28—Beanie Milne resents the allusion to a "half couple". Says he was merely dodging the advances of three would-be feminine partners.
- 29—Miss Gale states servicemen want interesting, stimulating, and exciting literature. Joan Hall submits her diary.

FEBRUARY

- 1—Classes delayed half hour as a Rockport special bus gets stuck by the Tavern.
- 2—Service club meeting—10 freshmen attend.
- 3—Pis Andrews informs History class Lone Ranger is in charge of the Rough Riders

4—Birdseye oversleeps and comes to school in curlers. All is explained.

5—Phyl Cooley and Morris MacLean on the "outs". She asked him for violets, and he brought her a package of seeds.

8—A penny saved is a penny earned in the G.H.S. Bank. (Moderate rates for other advertisements.)

9—"Bud" Pierroway's car has a good pickup, judging from what we saw on the way to school.

10—Found! Mel Layton at Hi-Y meeting taking notes on a book she is going to write.

11—A correspondence school course on "How to Be A Detective" found in O'Connell's notebook. Now he has to see your birth certificate before he will believe you were even born.

12—Lincoln's birthday—Promising freshman reads the Gettysburg Address at assembly. Great catastrophe—still no majors for regiment.

15—Miss McGrew on behalf of the Stevens Book Reviewers, Miss Selig on behalf of the "FLASH", Miss Burnham on behalf of the "BEACON", Mr. Wilder on behalf of the "FLICKER", and Miss Harris on behalf of her eyesight and good temper, demand a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty for persons correcting Dotty Perkins' handwriting.

16—Ring out for grammar schools. Freshmen homesick.

17—Blizzard! 500 absent. 700 wish they were.

18—Bob Coull caught putting following notice on 1st floor bulletin board: "Wanted—an attractive, young, unattached female to accompany a handsome R.O.T.C. officer to the party tomorrow night."

19—"Second Officers' Party"—Congratulations to Pimental in the winning of the Individual Drill, and Jimmy Broderick, who consumed a most unbelievable amount of ice cream.

20-21—VacRATION!

22—March 7—More of the same.

MARCH

8—Ogden Nash says: "Nobody over twelve relaxes, in March that month of wind and taxes."

Karcher wonders if his father can list him as a liability.

9—Messrs. Johnson and Fellows are "in absentia" at Mother-Daughter Banquet for first time in years. Bennett caught putting pat of butter in her pocket.

10—Miss Harris states that it takes 99% perspiration and 1% inspiration to write a theme. Alicia Karvellas tries to compromise with 100% inspiration.

11—S. Wright and A. Thanos stage one-act farce in 121—Mr. Rosen requests return engagement at 1:40.

12—Senior girls tested in chorus for graduation music. Miss Moore discovers 89 sopranos, 85 altos and 1 bass.

15—C. Amero exiled from 215—Man without a Country.

16—Professor Butler of Boston University speaks to seniors and juniors interested in college. Boys go for Dr. Butler's outline of a Government-financed education. Girls go for Dr. Butler.

17—St. Patrick's Day. Girls wear brother's sport-jackets, shirts, and green bow-ties. Fred Bradley absent as Jean "borrowed" his last white shirt.

18—G.H.S. starts contributions towards buying a "jeep". B. Boughton buys two defense stamps, and wants her name written on it.

19—Roosevelt club dance—Admission one defense stamp—Alexander takes tickets at one door, Nugent tries to collect club dues at the other.

22—Report cards—Beanie Milne explained to his mother that:

"A" means "Absenteeism."

"B" means "badly in need of study".

"C" means "complimentary"

"F" means "most favorable"

23—Chorus—bass discovered in soprano section Shirley Monroe blames sore throat.

24—Boy! This one was a pip, but Mr. Wilder made me take it out.

25—Joe Burgarella wears new necktie. Mr. Parsons has hard time concentrating on Custer's last stand.

26—Spring is really here. "Dunc" abandons her fur coat, Grogan his ear-muffs, and not a pair of slacks is seen on our campus.

29—Perkins and Rowley absent. New England Press Conference still in session debating on Donald Duck as a contribution to the war effort. Perkins and Rowley take affirmative.

30—Now we know it is spring. Freshmen blossom out with graduation blue serge suits, white dresses, and Bo-Lo balls.

31—Seniors! Graduation comes in exactly 65 days. That is six weeks more of school for seniors.

APRIL

1—April Fools Day—Bessie Ward plays joke on Miss Crawley by substituting H₂SO₄ for H₂O.

2—Room 102 missing from first floor. (So is Bessie Ward.)

5—The bandmen are resting on their laurels after their performance Friday night.

6—Juniors elect their class officers. Seniors feel they are not being elbowed out of G.H.S. very subtly.

7—Senior boys elated. "Pilgrim's Chorus" from "Tannhauser" a graduation song. Miss Moore appeases girls by giving them a Selection from "The Merry Widow Waltz".

8—Bradley makes another payment on Hall's Christmas present.

9—Presentation party—All six captains are sworn enemies for the night.

12—Miss Harris tells boys they should be interested in girls' clothes as someday they'll have to pay for them. Joe Bolcome seen this afternoon window-shopping on Main Street.

13—See November 17.

14—Mr. Parsons wears new spring suit to school. He peeked in the class ballot and found out he had one vote for best-dressed boy.

15—Kay Noise (Noyes) puts on the dog in English. Miss Gale puts the dog out.

16—No seniors represented so it isn't worth mentioning, but anyway—the Dramatics Club presented Barries' "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" today.

19—A long week-end thanks to Patriots' Day. Maizie Smith against day off as more stamps could have been sold. 'Tis a cruel world.

20—The class of '43 has one girl of whom they are justly proud. Mary Grimes establishes an all-time record for tardiness arriving at 1:39.

21—Mr. Rosen says as French students we would make good stage crew men. (Attention H. Riley.)

22—Sue Henderson introduces A block English to Winnie the Pooh. Agnes Walsh converses intelligently as this book is just her speed.

23—Friday—spelled R-O-B-I-N-S-O-N-C-R-U-S-O-E. (CLANCEY and GOODWIN refuse to have any part in this. Perkins takes all the blame.)

24—May 3—Spring Vacation.

MAY

3—Vacation over. It was awfully short but long enough to forget what we learned before it.

4—Nothing ever happens on Tuesday.

5—Freshmen asks Floyd Abbott for autograph. Accuses Floyd of using an alias. Thought he was John Fattig.

6—Miss Moore warns cast of "Erminie" rehearsals are compulsory. Glee club searching party sent out for Bob Clancey and Don Goodwin.

7—Miss Moore sends out party to find searching party.

10—Found! Clancey, Goodwin and two searching parties indulging in a game of poker in the boiler room. But—the show must go on!

11—Junior girls rehash Junior Tea. Seniors reminisce.

12—Mr. Rosen in state of perspiration trying to explain French Literature to his third year classes. Hall bawled out. Nugent bounced out.

13—Seniors desolate! Only 16 days of school.

14—Time marches on—Jean Perry sleeps on.

17—Seniors rush to pay Class dues. (Reason: Class Banquet.)

18—Refer to May 4th.

19—Jan Rowley falls down stairs landing at Dick Poirier's feet. Dick wants to know if it's a proposal?

20—No drill today—Good old Jupe Pluvius! (That's rain to the illiterate.)

21—Dot Day comes to school on truck at 10:28. Reception committee including Wolfe, Livingston, Francis and Mr. Thompson at portals.

24—All communications between the 1st battalion cut by 1:26 train at depot. Company B thinks it's theirs and board it. The little vagabonds!

25—Company B arrives at school at 11:51 after night's march from Boston. Clancey still in Boston.

26—Festival judges heap plaudits of praise on Glee clubs and band. Phyl Cooley is our Queen for a day.

27—Girls come to school in weird hair-dos. Bowden hides in the supply office. Rubin coaxes him out, explaining it's only in preparation for the Sergeants' party tomorrow night. Bowden comes out appeased.

28—Field Day—at last. Everybody gets a commission; Chisholm gets three shakers; the captains get red faces. Officers take back seat at the party—where the junior sergeants reign supreme.

29—Saturday—We feel like the morning after. Mr. Rosen says we look like it, too.

30—Memorial Day—The senior boys climb into uniforms for the last time. Amero and Clancey wear all their medals. Not to be outdone McKenna wears a Coco-Cola bottle cap on his lapel.

31—Seniors begin to turn in their books. Shirley Wright has job erasing all her pencilled notes from "The Barber of Seville".

JUNE

1—Did we say nothing ever happened on Tuesday? Miss Moore coaxes O'Hanley not to wear his bright red necktie on graduation night.

2—Ann Fialho goes around school with reddened eyes. We thought it was nostalgia for G.H.S., but it's only the onion her mother put in her chopped ham sandwich.

3—Flicker comes out in blaze of glory. We think it's the best one ever. What's "LIFE" got that we haven't got?

4—The zero hour approaches. Miss Moore begs Jedrey to just go through the motions of singing.

6—GRADUATION—Resplendent in caps and gowns of navy blue, the class of 1943 reap their rewards of four years. (And Fred Bradley makes the final payment on Joan's Christmas present.)

P.S.—O'Hanley wore his green tie instead!

Any resemblance to persons living or dead is purely intentional.
